MORNING NOTES

Reading/Language Arts- Our weather unit includes Come On, Rain! and The Snowy Day. We continue to use word families (such as -at, -op) to help us blend short words.

Please practice these new sight words: me, with, she, look, see
A cumulative list of sight words is coming home. ☺

I hope you are finding time to read with your child daily, even if you only have time for one book. Book It logs are due BEFORE Christmas break.

K-Wac (phonics)- Please bring a letter N item on Monday.

Spelling & Writing- The next test is Dec. 13th. Please encourage your child to use the lines when forming letters. All letters, with the exception of I, need to be lowercase.
