MORNING NOTES

Reading/Language Arts- We will begin word families, such as -an & -ap. We will also continue with position words, parts of a book, & opinion words.

New sight words to practice: has, play, and

Your child should attempt to read the little books & Scholastic News to you when these go home. Practice builds confidence! How is the Book It goal coming along?

K-Wac (phonics)- G items are due Monday.

Spelling – Please help your child blend these words & spell them. We will test on Thurs., Nov. 21st.

dog dig hog God (uppercase G)

Math – Patterns; Numbers 1-50

Can your child name the numbers 1-25 out of order?

AFTERNOON NOTES

Religion – Continue Chapter 12; review the “Golden Rule”; Mass on Wed. at 9:00

Please help your child work on The Sign of the Cross and other kindergarten prayers. We work on these in school all the time, but practicing in a large group is different from praying at home as a family.

Social Studies- Wants vs. Needs; The First Thanksgiving

SNACKS

Our cupboard of extra snacks really dwindled down in October. If you forget your child's snack day, I will serve something from the cupboard. It's okay! It happens to all of us. ☺ Please try to send a replacement snack for the cupboard if you happen to forget the snack day. Thank you!

REMINDERS

- Midterm reports will go home Nov. 20th.
- There will be no school Nov. 22, 28, & 29.
- We are working on kindness & putting others first. Please ask your child about friends at school. What makes a good friend? What kids do you enjoy playing with?
