MORNING NOTES

Reading/Language Arts- We continue to learn new vocabulary words with each story. Ask your child to tell you about the characters & events from the latest stories we've read. (Four Seasons Make a Year & The Little House)

We are working on rhyming words. Nursey rhymes, songs, and poems are a good way to practice rhyming at home.

Keep practicing the sight word list, including last week's word is.

K-Wac (phonics)- D items are due Monday.

Spelling -Please help your child practice this list using lowercase letters. We will test on Nov. 1st.

dad if mad bad

Math - We will begin Unit 3 by observing numbers, shapes, & patterns around us. We will use some fun Halloween pages to practice counting & comparing. Ask your child about the words fewer & greater.

Please ask your child to count to 50 at home. Keep working on identifying numbers 1-25 out of order. A deck of playing cards is handy for practicing number identification, comparing numbers, and putting numbers in order.

AFTERNOON NOTES

Religion - Chapter 10 God Helps Us to Discover (five senses); Mass on Friday at 9:00 due to All Saints Day; All Saints Day party will be school-wide on Friday afternoon ☺

Social Studies - Symbols of the U.S.A.

REMINDERS

- The Book It reading log is due November 1st!
- Thanks for helping with the cookie dough fundraiser. Please hand in your orders.
- October Family Fun Night is finally here (Friday)!
- Mass for Oct. 30th will be moved to Nov. 1st due to All Saints Day. Please wear uniforms on Friday, not Wednesday.
